THE DUMB VALET

designed by Benedikt Bolza

Code: FUR-SEA-0001

Handmade in Italy

The Dumb Valet is a refined take on the classic gentleman's valet: a bench designed to sit at the centre of a dressing room—or even at the entrance—meant to serve both him and her. Its brass-plated steel frame conceals clever features: a fold-away footrest, an extendable clothes rail and small trays for keys or coins. The original version features a mustard velvet seat.

This piece works well when placed centrally in a dressing room where it can be used from both sides as a combined his and hers”
